CLUB NOTES

Our visitors to-day, Manchester City, have had mixed fortunes this season in the Second Division. They made rather a slow start to the season, then came a period when they looked like potential promotion candidates and of late they have not seemed able to strike a winning vein. At the moment they lie ninth in the 2nd Division with just a point a game.

Our visit to Sunderland on the 21st inst. gave a severe setback to our promotion aspirations. We should have gone in front first in this match, but an inspired spell by Sunderland lasting only a few minutes more or less, settled the result, and though we came back into the game quite strongly for periods we never looked like overhauling Sunderland. It was a very unfortunate day all round, the Reserve Team undeservedly loosing to a strong Liverpool Reserve team.

Just a reminder that our Easter Monday match with Grimsby Town is a morning match, kick-off at 11-0 a.m.

Our three games this Easter with Grimsby (twice) and Manchester City this afternoon could be decisive as far as promotion is concerned. None of the three teams concerned can afford to slip at this stage of the competition and our aim should be six points from three games. If we continue in the same manner as against Leeds United and Norwich City for our remaining games, we should certainly be in at the death.

One problem we have, which we are of course very happy to have to contend with, is the vexed question of Final Tickets. Full details are shown elsewhere in the programme, but we would like to stress that it is regretted that block bookings from coach firms, etc., cannot be accepted. We appreciate that it is quite likely that regular supporters will be unfortunate and not get a ticket, but our allocation from the Football Association is insufficient to cover our average gate. Once Season Ticket holders have been dealt with, THE BALANCE OF ALL STAND AND GROUND

TICKETS, will be disposed of through the medium of a ballot, a method which the Board considers is by far the fairest.

We would remind all Reserved-Stand Season Ticket holders that the re-booking slip in their season tickets should be completed and forwarded to the office by the date stated. New applicants for Stand Season tickets should apply early in May, stating their requirements.

Since the last issue of our programme, Willie Cunningham has left the service of the Club and joined Southport as a player-manager. Willie spent some fifteen years with the Club and during that period gave loyal and unstinting service in both 1st and 2nd Division. We will miss his genial presence at Deepdale and we wish him well for the future.

The Board would like to extend to the team their hearty congratulations on their achievement in reaching the Final of the F.A. Cup. We shall be meeting First Division opposition at Wembley in West Ham United and win, lose or draw, nothing can detract from the achievement in reaching the final tie.

Preston North End Supporters' Club

Since these notes last appeared in the programme, as far back as February 15th, much has happened on the Deepdale scene. The Supporters' Club members have found much to be proud of in their team this season and take this opportunity in joining together and congratulating the lads on their wonderful Cup run to reach Wembley.

As all visitors to Deepdale to-day will be able to see for themselves, the new club house is nearing completion. It is now only a matter of a few weeks before the building will be open.

A small sub-committee has been busy during the last few weeks interviewing candidates for the part of Steward in the new club and supporters will be informed as soon as the successful applicant is selected.

For the supporters' Club trip to Rotherham next Saturday, coaches will leave Deepdale at 10-15 a.m., and the fare, inclusive of tea after the match, is 16/-.

ALAN OGLEY (Goalkeeper). A newcomer to the Maine Road playing staff in the past close season, Ogley is a native of Barnsley, from which club City signed him. A former England Schoolboy international, he made his senior debut for the Yorkshire club in September, 1962, making nine League appearances last season. Ogley is a youngster of outstanding promise. Has played several times for the England Youth team.

BILL LEIVERS (Right Fullback). One of the best post-war signings City have made, Leivers, who comes from Clay Cross, Derbyshire, joined them from Chesterfield in 1953. He made his debut in August the following year, and after a time at centre-half was successfully switched to right-back, to which position he has recently returned after a long spell at centre-half.

CLIFF SEAR (Left Fullback). In November, 1962, Sear won his first Welsh full cap against England, after previously playing at Under-23 level. Born at Rhostyllen (Denbighshire) he was spotted by City while playing for Oswestry Town and joined the Maine Road staff in January, 1957. He made his league debut the following April, and quickly became established as a regular senior player.

BOBBY KENNEDY (Right Halfback). This is Kennedy's third season with City whom he joined from Kilmarnock in the summer of 1961. Born at Motherwell, he gained Scottish Under-23 honours with Kilmarnock, and has proved a most versatile utility player. Last season he played in both full-back positions, at right-half and at inside right.

ALF WOOD (Centre-half). Macclesfield born, Wood played for Manchester Boys before signing for City as an amateur in 1961. He became an Apprentice professional in July, 1962, and signed full-time in October last year. He made his league debut against Nottingham Forest on 15th April, 1963, and this season came into the first team at the end of November, since when he has given very consistent displays.

ALAN OAKES (Left Wing-half). Oakes hails from Winsford, Cheshire, and signed professional forms for City in 1959. After captaining the Youth team he made his league debut in November that year, playing in 18 senior games that season. Last winter he was a regular member of the first team, in which he occupied both wing-half positions.

NEIL YOUNG (Outside-right). Another product of City's junior organisation, Young is a native of Manchester who made his league debut at the age of 17 in November, 1961. He played so well that he was an automatic choice at outside-right the rest of that season, scoring eleven goals in 26 League and Cup appearances. Last winter he showed his versatility by playing at outside-left and inside-left as well as his usual position on the right-wing, and made 31 League appearances scoring five goals.

MATT GRAY (Inside Right). Gray was signed from Third Lanark on February 26th, 1963, and made his debut at inside forward a week later. He occupied that position until the closing stages of the season, when he had three games at left-half. A native of Renfrew, Gray is a strong, hardworking player who scored six goals in 15 appearances in the front line last season.

JIMMY MURRAY (Centre-forward). City's latest signing, being transferred from Wolverhampton Wanderers in November. Murray, who was born at Elvington, Dover, was on Wolves books as an amateur for two years before signing professional forms in 1953. He won Cup Winner's medal.

GLYN PARDOE (Forward). The youngest player ever to appear in City's senior side, Pardoe made his league debut in April, 1962, when only 15 years and 314 days old. Another of the Club's own products, last season he occupied the centre-forward, inside-left, outside-right and left-half positions, and did much to confirm the promise shown in earlier outings in the first team.

DEREK KEVAN (Inside Left). Signed from Chelsea last August, Kevan began his professional career with Bradford in 1952, but a year later he followed Bradford's former Manager, Mr. Vic Buckingham, to West Bromwich Albion where he soon established himself in their first team. He was soon playing for the England team and altogether won 14 caps, 4 Under-23 caps and played also for The Football League.

DAVID WAGSTAFFE (Outside Left). A native of Manchester, Wagstaffe made his senior debut for City on September 7th, 1960, and soon made the left wing position his own. Although possessing a strong shot he does not usually shine as a marksman, preferring to provide scoring chances for others. Has a fine turn of speed and excellent ball control, and has made close on 100 league appearances in the last three seasons.
